

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Howard, the county seat of Miner County, is a progressive business community which relies on a diverse industrial base, agriculture, and a wide variety of retail businesses; and,

Whereas, Howard continues to prove itself as a thriving community that sets its vision to an even more prosperous tomorrow; and,

Whereas, Howard and Miner County have taken a proactive approach toward creating a unique renewable energy economic cluster that benefits the community, the county and the entire state; and,

Whereas, The citizens of Howard are visionaries for positive change in rural America; and,

Whereas, Now, state government is going on the road to the people of Howard and the surrounding area in a unique program called "Capital for a Day;" and,

Whereas, "Capital for a Day" is designed to provide a local forum whereby an exchange of ideas, information, and concerns among the governor, cabinet officials, representatives for the private business sector, local elected officials, special interest groups and the general public can occur:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 27, 2007, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
